To,

THE Plague Commissioner, Madras.

SIR,

With reference to your letter of the 24th December last No. 988, I have the honour to state that my original complaint was that an intimation had not been sent in a particular case. In replying to that complaint, you remarked in para 2 of your reference dated 29th November 1898 on C. No. 1645 of 1898, that the intimations were intended only to check the work of passport issuing officers. And to this, I replied in my letter of the 13th December 1898 Dis. No. 466/Tour that as it might be possible that some tickets might escape being marked in any distinctive way it was necessary that ~~there~~^{it} should be an intimation to enable us to follow up if need be, the case of ~~another~~ any passenger. From my own personal knowledge I can say that one ticket issued from Guntakal to Madras on the afternoon of the 21st December last was not punched before issue by the booking clerk. I cannot say whether it was afterwards punched, though I saw
