SIR,

With reference to the rules relating to the acquisition of land for railways republished with Government of India Circular No. IV Railway, dated the 4th September 1897, for general information and guidance, I am directed to communicate the following further orders on the subject and to say that the Government of India desire that they may receive careful attention—

- (1) That the plans prepared under rules 21 and 22 of the rules referred to above shall be full and complete and shall show all existing roads and buildings, and that when the latter are known to be used for public purposes, or by special departments, their purpose and ownership may be stated.
- (2) That land already public property shall be separately applied for and not included in the plans and notifications as to be acquired under the Land Acquisition Act.
- (3) That the railway administration shall, under rule 37, be responsible for obtaining the consent of the military authorities before applying for the acquisition under the Act of land in cantonments or otherwise held for military purposes.
- (4) That the railway authorities shall be responsible for specially drawing attention to all cases in which religious buildings or tombs are proposed to be acquired (vide Public Works Department Code, Volume I, Chapter IX, paragraph 28, and Chapter X, paragraph 25).
