SIR,

Adverting to G.O., No. 893 P., dated 24th August 1896, I have the honour to state instructions were issued to the Hospital assistant at Vinukonda and the Civil Apo- the-cary Narsaraopet to inspect on the platform all the pas- en-gers arriving from the west and leaving the train at these stations. I however learn from the Station Master, Guntakul, that the number of persons booking from Guntakul to Vinukonda and Narsaraopet is extremely small. The Mail train arrives at a.m. 5.12 & 5.46 a.m. at these stations respectively and it causes great hardship to the Hospital assistant and the Civil Apothecary to attend at these stations at these hours the trains being not infrequently late. As the duty of giving passports to persons arriving from Guntakul devolves upon the Station Masters it appears unnecessary to make the medical Subordinates attend on the chance that there may be
