Copy of the proposals

Proposed by Mr. R. K. R. Nuthusamy Pillai and Seconded by Mr. R. Parameswaram Pillai.

The Government be informed that the reasons for not reducing the pay of the Storekeeper are:

- (1) That the Storekeeper is required to be a trustworthy man as he has to measure, keep in store and deliver every day coal and oil to the value of about Rs 7000 per annum. He is also, in charge of tools.
- (2) That he has to be at the Pumping Station from 5 P.M. to 9 P.M. every day Sundays included.
- (3) That he is not provided with lodging at the scene of his work which is far away from the inhabited portion of the town and so he has to provide himself with a carriage to go to and return from pumping station.
- (4) That he gives security for Rs 200/.
- (5) That the present incumbent is deserving a special consideration as he is a matriculate and has been drawing not less than 25 Rs per mensem since his employment in the Municipality as clerk in the Municipal office.
