I beg to remain,
Sirs,
The Personal Assistant to the Plague Commissioner

Being given to understand that there is a vacancy as a copyist in your department. I offer myself a candidate for the same.

As to my qualification I have passed the Government Lower Secondary Examination in 1895 and studied in the Matriculation class and also I beg to state that I was attending Dr King's Sanitary Inspectors class for the plague duty.

The Plague Commissioner Esq

Most Honored Sir

With due respect and humble Submission I beg to bring the following few lines to your honors kind Consideration hoping to meet with success.

Having been given to understand that there is a Copyist loter entertained in your honors office. I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the same. I have passed the middle school examina-tion in the 1st class. I have served in the S. I. R. the Rev. Survey at Tirunelveli & also a Copyist in the high court at Tirunelveli.

Under these circumstances I humbly beg to state that your honor will be kindly pleased to appoint me in the place.

Honoured Sir

Having come to understand that a copyist on Rs 15/- is to be entertained in your honour's office I most humbly beg to submit my application for one of them.

As to my qualifications I beg to state that I was employed in Messrs. Dorr's for about three years. As I am now without any footing I earnestly crave your honour's would be kind enough to bestow on me the Copyist's place. Should I be favoured with the appointment above mentioned I shall give every satisfaction to my superiors in the carrying out of the work entrusted to me.

I beg to remain

Personal Asst. to the Plague Commissioner Madras.

Dated Madras 4th June 99.

Respected Sir,

Having learnt that there is a vacancy of the place of a Copyist in your Honour's office, I beg respectfully to request that you will be pleased to Confer it on me.

I passed the Matriculation Examination in 1895 and was temporarily employed as a Clerk in the Forest Department. A specimen of my handwriting is herewith submitted for your approval.

I beg to remain

Respectfully

Your most obedient Servant - S. A. Annamajee Esq.

It was only as a fighting man that Blake can be said to have approached greatness in any rational sense of the word. As an admiral he gained a position which continued to be unrivalled until more than a century after his death. Whether such a life is as interesting as it is theoretically supposed to be, is perhaps doubtful. Certainly there is no class of men who play a smaller part in biography than admirals. Their greatness is taken for granted Nelson is indeed an exception, but then he was an exception in so many respects; not the least important of them, being that he found something for a biography. The interest of his life too, is largely independent of his great deeds in battle.
Das ewig Weibliche plays a very large part in his Dringo, and his famous saying, 'if there were more such as there would be more Nelsons' is true in a sense he never meant the words to bear.
