The Palghat Municipal Council

Partition of Tharakkat gramam Annaswami Pattar's son Vengal Pattar, Palther Annas, Palghat Taluk.

I have been informed that certain lands belonging to me, namely flats sowing $13\frac{1}{2}$ paras of paddy and nursery plot and paramba sowing 7 paras of paddy, are proposed to be taken up under the Land acquisition act for the purpose of play ground attached to the Victoria College of the Palghat Municipal Council.

2. It is a matter of great regret and loss to me that a portion of the compact area of lands belonging to me should be taken up. But if it is not possible to do without it, I shall be willing to part with the gramam right of the whole block of the lands with the exception of the portion marked A₃ in the plan.

3. The flats included in the lands would fetch and were fetching an annual rental of 95 paras of paddy exclusive of assessment and the nursery plots 30 paras, aggregating 125 paras of paddy. The paramba is used useful one, and it has been my intention to erect a building with 6 rooms for letting out to the students of the College.

4. Offers have been made to me for the demise of the said "paramba" and the adjoining "Kutiyinipa" on a karam of Rs 300. But I have declined to do so. The paramba owing to its favourable situation, would fetch a gannam value of at least Rs 300.

5. The gannam value of the flats sowing 125 paras of paddy capitalized at $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent interest would come to Rs 1428-9-2 and of the paramba Rs 300, making up a total gannam value of Rs 1728-9-2. As I am poor, I cannot hope to contend successfully with the Municipal Council.

I therefore beg that the Council may be pleased to acquire the lands from me on payment of their proper gannam value.
