Sir,

I have the honor to request, that Government may be pleased to sanction a monthly charge of 3 Rs. from the 1st October 1899 under Plague expenditure as an allowance to the Registrar of births and deaths for the additional duty imposed on him in issuing passports to passengers arriving from plague infected areas.
The Municipal subordinate who keeps the births and deaths registers gets a small pay of 7 Rs a month and attends the Railway Station in the morning to issue passports, he also

To prepare the daily reports of arrivals and to enquire and trace persons from infected parts who neglect to take out the passports.

An allowance of 3 Rs is considered by the Council necessary as a remuneration for the additional work. A copy of the resolution is submitted.

Provision has been made in the quarterly budget estimates of plague expenditure.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
