To
The Secretary to Government,
Local and Municipal Department,
Madras.

Sir,
Under Government Orders Nos. 435/Marine dated 27th May 1898 and 812/Marine dated 23rd September 1898, Ammapatnam in this District has been constituted a port under the Merchant Shipping Act, and the Medical officer at Manamelkudi has been appointed Health Officer of that port port-Government Order No. 283/Marine dated 13th April 1898. Manamelkudi is a mile and a half from Ammapatnam, and the Hospital Assistant has to engage a cart every time he visits the port for granting Bills of health to ships touching there. He requests that he may be allowed Annas 8 for each visit. The amount, he says, represents his actual expenses, and is reasonable.

As the Hospital Assistant proceeds to Ammapatnam for the performance of a duty unconnected with the District Board, whose servant he is, I request that the charge may be ordered to be paid from Provincial Funds.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
