The collector,
North Brest.

Sir,
In forwarding herewith a refund certificate, I request that the sanction of the Plague Commissioner be obtained for the following amount being refunded to me viz:-
double first class - Jolarpet to Chittoor - 9-2-0 1 Horse - 11-8-0
Total Rs 20-10-0

I was ordered to proceed originally to Jolarpet for plague duty in the North Brest district and was provided as far as that station with a warrant for myself and horse by the military authorities.
On arriving at Jolarpet and finding I was in the Salem district
I

I wired for orders and was ordered to proceed to Chittoor the head quarters of the North Arcot district.

The reason I did not submit this claim before was due to the fact that I expected the Examiners of Commissariat accounts would call upon me to refund the amount paid by the military department for my journey from Trichinopoly to Golarpet as, according to the Regulations, when a military officer is deputed to civil employ his travelling expenses have to be met by the civil department and I intended to submit the claim for the whole amount from Trichinopoly to Chittoor. As yet however, no such demand has been made upon me although three months have elapsed.

I have etc.
