(a) Up to the 31st August 1899.

Note.—The salaries of Medical Subordinates are calculated for the whole of next year, while their allowances and also the pay of the clerks and servants are calculated for only nine months as there is no work for them during the monsoon (June to August).

(b) One of the hospital assistants has already brought forward a claim for house-rent allowance which is now under consideration and it is likely that other hospital assistants may also do the same. Hence this provision.

(c) Includes arrear pay and allowances.

(d) Includes provision for boat-hire for inspection of vessels.
