Read Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, Revenue Settlement &c., Mis. No.5772, dated 17th November 1899, accepting the recommendation contained in the following letter of the Collector of of Salem, Ref. on No.1273/B and G., dated 12th November 1899:-

As indigenous plague cases continue to occur in several villages in the Hosur taluk, it is, I think, necessary that the usual Pony show to be held at Berikai along with the cattle fair at that place should be postponed for another year. The next Kottara festival at Berikai will take place from the 11th to 22nd January 1900 and I have recommended to Government that the cattle fair be prohibited as also pilgrimage to the festival. I have the honour therefore to recommend that the pony-show be also postponed.
