READ—the following paper:—

From T. HESKETH BIGGS, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 26th October 1899, No. T. 400-Genl.—8217.

I have the honour to enquire whether G.O., No. 576, Revenue, dated 15th July 1897, under which officers deputed on famine duty in districts other than that in which they are serving should, as a rule, not be permitted to take their families with them at the public cost, is also applicable to officers deputed on plague duty.

My office has in several cases acted on the assumption that it is applicable (except in cases where the Surgeon-General has declared that a medical subordinate has been transferred to plague duty without retaining any lien on the appointment previously filled by him, and that the circumstances were such as to justify the concession), but it seems desirable that definite orders should be passed on the subject.

FOR ORDERS.

The A.G. inquires whether G.O. No 576 Rev dy 15-7-97 under which officers deputed on famine duty in district other than that in which they are serving should, as a rule, not be permitted to take their families with them at the public cost is also applicable to officers deputed on plague duty. The A.G. has acted on several occasions on the assumption that the G.O. is applicable (for an instance, please see linked file which is pending for want of information called for from the Collector Cuddapah the Governor seems to entertain a doubt in the matter and asks for the definite orders of Government.

2. From the original of Rev G.O. 576 of 1897, it appears that it is based on the following extract from a note written by Sir Henry Bliss in connection with the selection of certain officers from the Salt & Abkari dept for famine duty in Ganjam & Vizagapatam

" I should select Messrs Tillard(...) Warner, J. Brown & Wrayton. Tillard J. Brown and Wrayton are on the spot ... Warner is a long way off but is on the rail. These moved in this way for famine duty should not take their families."

It is not clear whether it was intended that a general order should issue superseding article 1205 of the C.R. Regulations in the case of all officers transferred to famine duty. It seems more probable that the H.M. intended his instruction to apply to the particular case mentioned.

3. Whatever the intention was, the Gen order of 1897 does not expressly cover the case of officers transferred to plague duty, and it would be advisable to consult the Govt of India before issuing any general order restricting the operation of article 1205 of the C.R. Regulations in the case of plague officers. At present there is nothing before Government pointing to the necessity for the issue of any such order.
