THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Local and Municipal DEPARTMENT,

Madras.

SIR,

Hutting materials being scarce in the Hosur Taluk and as considerable difficulty was experienced during the last outbreak of plague owing to the delay in getting them from Hosur I directed that about 500 bamboo mats be purchased in Salem and sent to Hosur to be kept in stock by the Special Plague Officer. About 100 of these mats have been issued partly to poor people in Jibi to erect sheds when ordered to evacuate and the rest in repairing the sheds at the frontier stations and health camps. The balance is in charge of the Special Plague Officer as a reserve to be used on emergencies. I have the honor to request that the purchase of these mats costing about Rs. 235 may be sanctioned. The expenditure can be met from the budget provision against "Petty construction and repairs" under Local.

I have the honor to be
Sir
