To

The Magistrate Commissioner
Madras

Sir,

With reference to your Proceedings no 948 dated 18 December 1898, I have the honor to state that the difficulty brought to notice was not that caused by persons omitting to take out passports but that caused by their giving false names & addresses. The report was submitted in reply to an order from Government and not in reply to any communication from you.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Yours most obed^t servant,

V. Rajagopalakrishnan

Mr Collector
