Collector writes (D.O.) which is put up below, that he cannot spare Barnettman for at least ten days. The question has been asked, but with regard to the Staff's request, but because S.G. wanted to know when B. was likely to join his appointment. LL important addition to the data collected on inoculation; and I should like, if feasible, to have this information placed before the Indian Plague Commission at an early date. As the inoculations at Belgaum were carried out by and under the supervision of Major Baunelmans, he seems to be the best person fitted for the above enquiry.

I have the honour to be,
