SUBJECT.

City of Madras

FOR ORDERS.

Flag A

In G.O. No 1310 P, 4-2-9-99. The Government sanctioned the retention of the existing plague establishments in Madras till the end of November and directed that if there was then no danger of plague reaching the city, proposals for greatly reducing the staff should be submitted. In submitting the list of plague establishments for this month, the President states that the services of the following persons may be dispensed with:—

- (1) The clerk on Rs 15 employed under the Special Plague officer, Capt. London.
- (2) The Asst. Surgeon on Rs 100 + Rs 60 allowance attached to the Rayapet plague hospital & now temporarily working at the Maternity hospital.
- (3) One of the two hospital assistants (on Rs 25 + Rs 10 + Rs 5) attached to the Egmore plague hospital.
- (4) The hospital assistant on Rs 25 + Rs 10 attached to the Kustnampet plague hospital.

- (5) Two of the ten clerks at Rs 20 each.
(These are probably working in the Municipal office. Four work there at present).
- (6) Seven out of the 31 peons at Rs 7 each
- (7) One Hospital servant at Rs 10
- (8) Three Hospital servants at Rs 7 each
- (9) one Hospital servant at Rs 6
- (10) Four hospital servants at Rs 5 each
- (11) Three Lascars at Rs 6 each

These seem to be at present attached to the plague hospitals at Rayapuram & Kristnampet.

In lieu of the persons included in items (6)-(11), the President proposes to employ 4 watchmen at Rs 6 each at Rayapuram and Kristnampet plague hospitals. The total monthly cost now is Rs 4281-1-6 and the net reduction proposed by the President is Rs 393-0-0. This reduction may be sanctioned.

2. ~~Up to date~~ of the following is the total number of plague cases in Madras up to date from 1-4-98.

| Total    | 17      | 11.    |

All these cases were imported. There will be work for the passport system as long as the passport system is in force & this will have to be continued as long as there is plague in India, but the medical staff has had ~~no~~ very little work & some time since 1899 & is perhaps capable of further reduction. There is a military officer on duty in Madras. His salary is Rs 904-1-6. Some time ago the Govt of India inquired whether he could be spared & was informed that he could not be spared without grave inconvenience (Go. No 1125 P. dt 22-7-98)

Reductions accepted; ask Pres. whether further material reduction could now be made & whether by dispensing with the military officer or otherwise.
