Read—the following paper :—

From R. B. CLEGG, Esq., Acting Collector and District Magistrate of Salem, to the Plague Commissioner (through the Sanitary Commissioner, Madras), dated 25th January 1899, Ref. No. 212-P.C.

A car festival is to be held at Theerthamalai, a village in the Uttangarai taluk of this district, from 25th February to 8th March 1899 and is usually attended by merchants dealing in cloths, brass vessels, &c., as also pilgrims from Bangalore and North Arcot districts. I consider it necessary that the attendance of such persons should be prohibited. A draft notification is accordingly enclosed as also the prescribed statement. If the prohibition be sanctioned, the medical officer, Jalarpet, and the officers in charge of the frontier and ghât inspection stations in the district will be instructed to turn these people back. Guards will also be posted on the roads round the village during the period.
