SIR,

Third class Hospital assistant J. Padmanickam Pillai attached to the Local Fund Dispensary at Tiruvallur, South Arcot District having been employed on plague duty there from 11th January to 21st February 1899 both days inclusive he claims house rent allowance at Rs 5 per mensem in accordance with G.O. No. 578, Public, dated 7th August 1894, and 178, Public, dated 9th March 1895, but the President, District Board, South Arcot declines to grant the same on the ground that the Plague Commissioner's Proceedings No. 907 dated 13th December 1898 applies only to the medical subordinates attached to Plague inspection stations.

L. N. D. as the charge is borne by Dept

I have therefore the honor to request that Government will be pleased to authorize the President to pay the amount due to the Hospital assistant.

I may add that the Hospital Assistant was in receipt of the allowance before he was withdrawn for plague duty and his title to the allowance is reasonable.

I have the honor to be
 Sir
 Your most obedient servant.

C. B. Deane.
 Surgeon General.

Forwarded.

Under Plague Commissioners Proceedings Nos 907 and 715, dated 13 December 1898 and 14 March 1899 respectively, Hospital Assistants attached to Plague Inspection Stations or to the ambulance staff are entitled to house rent in lieu of free quarters. There is no objection from an account point of view to the concession being allowed in the present case also.

2. The delay in forwarding the letter is due to a reference having had to be made to the Surgeon General as to the duties performed by the Hospital Assistant. His letter of the 15 November 1899 is herewith forwarded in original.

TO
THE Secretary to Government Local and Municipal Department, Madras.

SIR,

With reference to your endorsement Reference on current No 3683P. dated 2nd December 97 returned herewith I have the honour to state that it is reported by the Vice President District Board that at the time the Hospital Assistant sent in his bill for the House rent allowance the Plague Commissioner's Proceedings No 715 dated 14th March 97 was not in force and that he has no objection now to pass the bill for payment.

2. With reference to the Surgeon General's Statement in para 3 of his letter that the Hospital Assistant was in receipt of the House Rent allowance before he was withdrawn for plague duty, the Vice President remarks that he was not drawing such allowance.
