TO

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

SIR,

With reference to G.O. No. 1669 P dated 20th November 1899, relating to the approaching festival of Sri -- Ekambaranada Swamiar's Kumbabishegam to be held in Conjeeveram in January 1900, I have the honour to request you to move the Government to sanction the employment of a Civil Apothecary at the Conjeeveram Railway Station to examine and issue passports to the arrivals by train from plague infected areas.

Although the issue of tickets to pilgrims has been prohibited it is to be feared that a ^{considerable} ~~large~~ number of persons from infected areas will succeed in reaching Conjeeveram by -- rail and now that the plague has again obtained a footing in the Salem and other districts on the Madras Railway I would -- submit that the precaution suggested is called for. I would request that the Civil Apothecary may be deputed for the duty in question for 10 days before and during the festival i.e from the 17th January to 4th February 1900. The passport clerk at present on duty at the Railway Station would assist the Civil Apothecary.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.
