DESPATCHED
21 NOV. 1899

Resubmitted with the following remarks.

The Sanitary Inspector who was entrusted with the duty of serving the notices through the respective Division Masters explains that the notices served were detained by him for being endorsed by him after the expiry of the time mentioned in the notices whether they were obeyed or not with a view to save trouble by way of preparing special reports on each case.

2. The difference of 1135-985, or 150 cases shown in column 3 to 6 & 2 is the ^{number} of cases in which parties have neither removed the encroachments nor provided with licenses for the same nor taken objection to the removal or the license of the same.
