READ—the following papers :—

From R. MORRIS, Esq., Collector of Kistna, to the Plague Commissioner (through the Sanitary Commissioner, Madras), dated 11th January 1899, No. 34-P.

A festival is held every year at Kotappa Konda, Kondakavur village, Narasaraopet taluk, for three days preceding and three days after the Mahasivaratri, which falls this year on the 10th March. The hill is 7 miles from the Narasaraopet Railway Station on the Southern Mahratta Railway. Pilgrims come from Hyderabad territory and Kurnool district in considerable numbers. The average attendance of pilgrims during the last three years is 63,000. As the plague appears to be spreading in the Kurnool district, I have the honour to recommend that attendance of pilgrims from plague-infected parts may be prohibited. I recommend also the prohibition of the sale from 7th to 13th March 1899 of railway tickets to the stations of Savalyapuram, Santamagulur, Vinukonda, Satulur and Phirangipuram on the Southern Mahratta Railway to persons from infected parts intending or believed to be intending to proceed to the festival.
