G.O. 113 P

Note for the Secretary.

In G.O. No 80 P. dy 11.1.99 the Dy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, was requested to send one hundred sepoys to Vellore for disinfection work in connection with the plague. The Collector of North Arcot having subsequently brought to the notice of the Plague Commissioner that the men sent to Vellore were all uninoculated and untrained, the Plague Commissioner suggested to Government that the military authorities might be requested, if more men had to be sent from Madras, to send at least half the number of such men from those held in readiness in Madras, stating at the same time that the President, Madras M.C., had no objection to such a course being followed. The Dy Adjutant-General was accordingly addressed to the matter. A requisition for additional sepoys for Plague duty at Arcot and Kuppam was subsequently received from the Plague Commissioner and the D.A. Adjutant-General was requested to send the men required, majority of them being, if possible, trained and inoculated men.

The Plague Commissioner now reports that the additional men are also untrained and uninoculated.
They belong to the 14th M.I. stationed at St. Thomas Mount. The trained and inoculated men appear to belong to the 28th M.I.
The Plague Commissioner states that the Military Department might have, even if it could not spare more men from the 28th M.I. at least the required number to N. Arcot trained and inoculated men now at Madras N. Arcot, their place being taken up

Please letter below.

The Military Department has sent uninoculated and untrained men again, although they were asked to send inoculated trained men if possible. This ~~makes~~ means a delay of another week. I suppose they will say that no more men could be spared from 28th M.I. But they might have sent 28 M.I. men to Arcot & Kuppam, and let 14th M.I. men come to Rayapuram in their place and be inoculated & taught. The need for sepoys in Madras is not at present urgent.
