pal Councillors, Wallajah

Head Assistant Collector the

of the 25th March 1899, came to a close and pal office, a peon called them saying that their pr gently required in the Municipal office, when they went there, M. R. Ry. Alwar Chetty Garu, one of the Councillors, suggested to them the desirability of retaining Murugesu Mudaliyar, Assistant Master, Municipal High School, Wallajah; but they opposed the re-opening of that old question as it was not on the agenda paper and said that the subject might be referred to the Head Assistant Collector for remarks. But to their surprise they learnt afterwards that a resolution had been entered in the rough minute book as if the subject and other matters had been proposed by M. R. Ry. Alwar Chettygar at the meeting and a resolution passed by a majority that the ~~xx~~ matter should be referred to the Ex-officio chairman for his remarks to be submitted to the Director of Public Instruction and the Inspector of Schools.

2. The Head Assistant Collector took statements from 4 out of 5 Councillors that were present at the meeting - the 5th Councillor being

Garu supported by the Manager states really occurred and that he was led into the error of not taking the precaution of striking out the entry in the minute book before affixing his signature owing to his ignorance of the way of doing business which he was not ashamed to admit.

8. From the Chairman's remarks it appears that the resolution recorded as having been carried is opposed to the recommendation of the Inspector of Schools and the Director of Public Instruction the views of a former chairman and the resolution passed at a previous meeting. It has been moved in a thinly attended meeting where neither the Chairman nor a single Councillor was well conversant with English without the proposition being on the agenda paper and without 3 clear days' time.

9. While from the papers it is evident that M. R. Ry. Alwar Chetty Garu and the late Municipal Manager were interested in Murugesu Mudaliar, there is nothing to show that the other Councillors that were present that day have any bias or prejudice against Murugesu Mudaliar and it is therefore reasonable to accept their version in preference to that of M. R. Ry. Alwar Chetty Garu and the late Municipal Manager.

10. The resolution ~~is~~ in question is clearly invalid and void as the prescribed notice of 3 days was not given. It is therefore cancelled. Though the conduct of M. R. Ry. Alwar Chetty Garu is certainly unsatisfactory, the Collector is not prepared to recommend his removal. ^{over a comparatively trivial affair.} He should be informed by the Head Assistant Collector that the Acting Collector views his conduct with grave displeasure. ~~over a comparatively trivial affair.~~ The Chairman is requested to see that in all the meetings of the Council there is an intelligent chairman who knows English.
