Plague Precautions in Ceylon

Ordering the publication in the Fort St. George and Maritime District Gazettes of the regulations made by the Governor of Ceylon under the provisions of the ordinance No. 3 of 1897, for the stoppage of traffic in passengers and goods between South India and certain parts of Ceylon.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Colonial Secretary, Colombo, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Local and Municipal Department, dated 19th January 1899.

Adverting to my letter of the 6th December last, relative to the stoppage of all traffic in passengers and goods between South India and the Northern Province of this island except at Kayts and the west coast north of Colombo, in connection with the precautionary measures adopted by this Government against the introduction of the plague, I am directed by His Excellency the Governor to forward to you herewith copies of the Regulations made by the Governor under the provisions of the ordinance No. 3 of 1897.

ENCLOSURE.

[EXTRACT from the Ceylon Government Gazette, No. 5596 of January 12, 1899.]

The following regulation made by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, under the provisions of the ordinance No. 3 of 1897, is published for general information :—

No person or goods coming or brought from any port or place in India south of the 20th degree of north latitude shall land or be landed anywhere on the coast of the Northern Province of this island or on any island adjacent thereto, or on the west coast of this island between Colombo and the southern limit of the Northern Province or on any island adjacent to such west coast; provided that nothing in this regulation shall be taken as prohibiting the landing of goods from any such vessel or boat at the port of Kayts.

Any goods landed in contravention of the provisions of this regulation, and any vessel or boat from which any person or goods may land or be landed in contravention of the provisions of this regulation, shall be liable to forfeiture and may be seized by any Police or Customs officer, and may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Principal Collector of Customs shall direct.
