Deputation Allowance to Military Assistant Surgeons in Civil Employ transferred to Plague Duty.

Communicating to the Plague Commissioner, the President, Municipal Commission, Madras, and the Surgeon-General, Government Order, Public Department, recording letter from the Government of India forwarding copy of a letter addressed to the Punjab Government regarding the grant of plague allowances to Military Assistant Surgeons in civil employ transferred to plague duty.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper :—

G.O., No. 120, Public, dated 27th January 1899.

Read—the following paper :—

From R. NATHAN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 18th January 1899, No. 108.

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of a letter, No. 98, dated the 18th instant, addressed to the Government of the Punjab regarding the grant of plague allowances to Military Assistant Surgeons in civil employ transferred to plague duty.

ENCLOSURE.

From A. H. L. FRASER, Esq., c.s.i., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical), to the Junior Secretary to the Government of the Punjab, Home (Medical and Sanitary) Department, dated Calcutta, 18th January 1899, No. 98.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1450—S.P., dated the 19th October last, inquiring what allowances should be granted to a Military Assistant Surgeon deputed to plague duty while acting as Civil Surgeon of a district.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Government of India have decided that a Military Assistant Surgeon transferred from an appointment (including the charge of a district) in the Civil department to plague duty may be granted the same allowances as a Military Assistant Surgeon transferred from military duty to plague duty, namely,—

(1) a special allowance of Rs. 3 or Rs. 2 a day according as the pay of the officer in the Civil department at the time of transfer does or does not exceed Rs. 150 a month, and
(2) in addition to the above allowance any acting, charge, or house allowance of which he was in receipt at the time of his transfer.

3. These orders are subject to the proviso that a Military Assistant Surgeon transferred from the officiating charge of a district may be granted the emoluments he drew as District Medical Officer only for so long as he would in the ordinary course have continued to hold charge of a district.

Order—No. 120, Public, dated 27th January 1899.
