Fort St. George,
Office of Supdt. of Pensions and Family Payments,
14th December 1898.

CIRCULAR No. 11.

It having been brought to notice that Military Pensioners have, in some instances, failed to render ready obedience to Plague Regulations, the Superintendent of Pensions, under instructions from Command Headquarters, hereby requests that you will take immediate steps to warn all pensioners that any disobedience or wilful neglect of Plague Regulations or obstruction to any official on plague duty, will be treated as a breach of the good conduct required by Government as a condition of the continuation of their pensions, and that any pensioner being guilty thereof will be liable to have his pension stopped forthwith, and the same reduced or permanently withdrawn.

2. In the event of any pensioner being reported to you as having committed any such offence, you will be good enough to immediately make a full report of the occurrence to this office, withholding the individual's pension, pending the receipt of further orders.

3. An acknowledgment of the receipt of this circular is requested by return of post.
