The humble memorial of J. Kondal Rao of Jammalamadugu, Cuddapah District, late Head Clerk, Madanapalli Taluk Board Office.

Most Respectfully showeth,

That your Excellency's humble memorialist was Head Clerk of the Madanapalli Taluk Board's office until 9th April 1899 when his services were dispensed with by the President, District Board, Cuddapah in the following circumstances.

2. On 22nd April 1898 your memorialist was transferred from the Proddatur—Taluk Board to Madanapalli Taluk Board which he joined on 25th July 1898 after being relieved on the 13th July 1898. On 27th August 98 however he was obliged to go to Jammalamadugu on 5th days casual leave on receiving information about his wife's ill-health. This he was obliged to convert into privilege leave for one month and extended further to 11th October 1898. His wife's ill-health and the state of his private affairs having rendered longer leave necessary—Your memorialist had to apply for the—Conversion of the privilege leave granted him to one of leave on private affairs for six months but this was refused by the President, Madanapalli Taluk Board who

[L. & M. 4,000-1-1-97.]

who directed him by wire to return to his duty by the 26th October 1898. This message which was dated 20th October reached your memorialist on 28th October but as he was then away at Kalvatala Village of Koilcuttalaluk in the Kurnool Dist. he was able to return to duty only on 7th Novemb In the meantime the President Taluk Board Nadanapalli dismissed him from service against which order your memorialist appealed to the President District Board who was gracious enough to restore him to office — modifying the order of the Taluk Board President to one of Suspension (Enclosure No I) According to this order your memorialist was to have joined his appointment at Madanapalle on 18th April 1899 but on 15th march 1899 he received an order from the President District Board calling upon him to file a correct statement of his assets and liabilities which he did on 25th march 1899. On 9th April 1899 the President District Board passed his order Disposal No 404 dated 9th April 1898 (Enclosure No II) dispensing with your memorialists services on the following grounds.

(1) That an item of Rs 110 due to one Jinna naidu, a member of the Proddatur Taluk Board has been omitted from the list and

(2) That your memorialist is from other accounts, hopelessly insolvent.

[L. & M. 4,000—1-1-97.]

3. On receipt of this order your memorialist has submitted a petition to the President, Distt. Board requesting him to graciously reconsider his order but as no orders have as yet been received by your memorialist on his petition and as your memorialist has been deprived of his right of appeal by the fact of the President Distt. Board passing the order dispensing with his services, your memorialist has taken the liberty to approach your Excellency with this humble memorial with the hope that his case will receive Your Excellency's favorable Consideration.

4. From the facts narrated above, it will be seen that the grounds on which your memorialist's services were dispensed with are too trivial to deserve such a severe punishment — Considering Your Memorialist's good record of over 19 years faithful and pensionable service Your memorialist has most respectfully submitted to the President that the omission of the item of debt referred to above was due entirely to forgetfulness caused by troubles both in his official and private affairs and begged that he might be pardoned for the same. The said debt is covered by a duly executed deed

deed and the mere omission of it from the list prepared by your memorialist does not in any manner tend to extinguish the debt as the President seems to suspect nor was it your memorialists intention to conceal the same from the Presidents knowledge as there is no motive on the part of your memorialist for such concealment.

5. Possessing your memorialist does property worth Rs 3600 against liabilities of Rs 1041 of which Rs 500 have already been liquidated he ventures to submit that it is unjust to call him hopelessly insolvent. He was obliged to contract these debts in small sums from time to time to meet Government demand on his lands which owing to a series of bad years yielded him hardly anything. Only 3 or 4 items represent large amounts which he was obliged to borrow to meet the Expenses of his daughters marriage.
None of the items of debt were contracted for any extravagant use by your memorialist whose salary of Rs 30 per mensem was hardly sufficient in these hard days to make both ends meet.

[L. & M. 4,000—1-1-97.]

6. In the above circumstances your memorialist most earnestly hopes that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to bestow favourable consideration to his poor case and order that he may be restored to his office as Head Clerk on the Condition of clearing away his debts within six months from the date of joining his duties as at first ordered by the President of the District Board in his Proceedings of the 14th January 1899 but subsequently altered by him in his Proceedings of the 9th April 1899.

For which act of kindness and generosity Your humble memorialist will as in duty bound ever pray.

Copy of the Proceedings of the President District Board, Cuddapah dated 14th January 1899.

Read petition of T. Koudal Row dated 4th January 1899 appealing against the order of Taluk Board President Madanapalle removing him from post of Taluk Board Head Clerk.

Read Taluk Board President's letter No. 19/2B. dated 7th January 1899 and the connected records therewith received.

Read Koudal Row's statement dated 14th January 1899.

Order thereon dated 14th January 1899. R. No. 24/2B. of 1899.

T. Koudal Row Head clerk of Madanapalli Taluk Board has been dismissed and appeals.

The facts are that he was transfered from Jammalamadugu to Madanapalli on 25th July 1898. He came very reluctantly and did all did all he could to get the order cancelled but in vain. Having come he shortly afterwards applied for privilege leave but was told to go to Cuddapah on business and then take casual leave to go to Jammalamadugu to bring his family. He did so but immediately on arriving at Jammalamadugu applied again for privilege leave. One month was granted. On expiry of that he applied for another month but was granted only upto 11th October as in the budget season he could not be spared. Again he failed to return on expiry of the leave but on 8th October wrote and asked for 4½ months extension owing to difficulties in his affairs. The President wired to him to return on 15th but he again wrote asking for the extension and then without waiting for orders quietly took the leave and went to Koilcuntla. The President sent a final wire on 20th October that he would be dismissed if he did not return by the 26th. He did not come and did not come till 7th November. Meantime on 2nd November the President finding the man absent without leave and finding no answer to the telegram of the 20th naturally dismissed him. This order was perfectly right and T. Nowden Rose has clearly forfeited his appointment. At the same time as he is spoken of as a capable officer by some and as he has put in 19 years service and as I understand it to be true that his private affairs were in confusion at the time I am disposed as a matter of grace to reinstate him. He informs me that his debts are only 800 Rupees and that by taking leave in the way he did he has caused a loss of Rs 2000. On the assumption that this statement is true I am willing to reinstate him, but hold myself at liberty to dispense with his services 14 months after he resumes office should this statement be false and he be found to be still involved in debts.

I must also enforce discipline a man cannot be allowed to compell his superiors to grant him leave in the way Rondal Row has and he takes by force such leave as he requires he can hardly wonded if he be compelled by force to take such longer leave as his superiors may think he has deserved. For gross disobedience to repeated orders Rondal Row is placed under suspension with effect from 1st October to 31st March 1899.

Endorsement No II

Disposal no 404/1824-99

Copy of the Proceedings of the President, nt.
District Board, Cuddapah dated 9th April 1899.

Read this office order Jour current no 86 of 1899 dated 15th march 1899 calling on T. Rondalkow Taluk Board Head clerk to file a schedule of debts due by him.

Read schedule of debts filed dated 25th march 1899.

Read Rondal Rows explanation dated 31st march 1899 certain omissions made in the schedule of debts.

Rondal Row Taluk Board Head clerk of Proddatur was transfered on public grounds to madanapalli. He made infinite trouble about joining but at last joined. He took casual leave almost immediately afterwards and returned to Jammalamadugu from which place he applied for privilege leave. This he practically compelled his employes to grant by taking it without orders. For this Mr Thornton dismissed him. On appeal I thought justice might be tempered with mercy and reduced the sentence of

of dismissal though well deserved to one of suspension for 6 months Having during all these proceedings come to know that Komdal Das was heavily in debt and that that was the real reason why he was so unwilling to leave Jamnalanadya I ordered him before rejoining to file a correct statement of his debts and at the same time warned him that an incorrect statement would entail summary dismissal. He filed a statement but omitted from it a loan of Rs 110 which he had taken from Timma Naidu one of the members of the Taluk Board His explanation is that he forgot. That a man whose appointment depended on a correct schedule would omit a transaction of that kind by forgetfulness is a statement no person can accept. He most probably omitted it because he never intended to repay it or because the lender being a member of the Taluk Board of which the Karnam was the Head clerk in the transaction was one of those best left in concealment whatever his reason was it is of no moment. He omitted one important item and this in spite of peremptory orders that omission would entail dismissal. How many more items he has omitted I cannot say. but since he has omitted one I cannot accept his list as in any way reliable. The man is hopelessly insolvent apparently and as such cannot be safely entrusted with the duties of Taluk Board Head clerk or any other duties. For this reason and because he failed to give a complete list when ordered I dont require the services of Komdal Das any more.

His services are dispensed with.

Copy of Endorsement on petition from J. Houdal Row to the President District Board praying that he may be sent to other Taluk Board than Madanapalli Taluk Board on the reasons represented in his petition.

Submitted to the President, District Board, Cuddapah for favorable consideration.

The applicant has been transferred to Madanapalli and the Head Clerk of the Madanapalli Taluk Board has been transfered to this Board on the score that the latter has been found incompetent. This Taluk Board is as heavy as the Madanapalli Taluk Board and I fail to see how the Head Clerk found incompetent at Madanapalli can be held fit to hold and discharge the functions of a Head clerk here. If he be found wanting he must I think, be reduced to a lower grade. I am afraid that this Taluk Board work will suffer if an incompetent Head Clerk be sent to take the place of a competent man.

This Taluk Board is Contributing Rs 3.8.4 monthly towards his pension and there is no provision in the Madanapalli Taluk Board Budget for the contribution. This is a hardship inflicted to the applicant for no fault of his.
