2. The President's question in para. 3 is answered in the affirmative. It should be remembered, however, that under the Note to Article 54 of the Local Fund Code, no gratuity is admissible to Local Fund servants who have rendered less than 20 years' service.

SUBJECT.

Enquiring if Article 54 of the Local Fund code is intended to limit the gratuity in all cases to 10 months' pay, independent of the length of service.

Note

Article 54 of the Local Fund Code, it will be seen, does not say that the scale of gratuities prescribed for Government servants will be applicable to Local Fund servants, but merely lays down that the amounts shall in no case exceed the maximum allowed to Government servants. It is thus open to Government to sanction from one to nine months' pay according to the circumstances of each case. Attention is however invited to the notes in G.O.

No 944 M dated 6 June 1896 from which it will be seen that when it was pointed out to the Honourable Member that not more than nine months' pay was, under the rules, admissible as gratuity Sir Henry Bliss remarked as follows:—

"Government made these rules and I suppose can unmake them in special cases. I don't think 12 months' gratuity a bit too much."

CURRENT No. 30881

Sir,

Article 54 of the Local Fund Code provides for payment of gratuity to Local Fund servants not entitled to --- pension. The amount is limited to the gratuity the officer --- would have earned had he been in Government service.

2. Article 518(a) of the Civil Service Regulations --- limits gratuities to officers of less than 10 years service, officers of longer service being entitled to pension. The maximum gratuity is 10 months' pay.

3. I have the honor to enquire if Article 54 is intended to limit the gratuity in all cases to 10 months' pay, independent of the length of service. This seems to be the meaning of the Article, as gratuity does not include pension. But, it seems anomalous that no difference should be made between an officer who has served 10 years and another who has served 20.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Sd) J. A. Cumming.
