The above order was communicated to the Assistant Inspector of Schools G. K. Division with a request to send a bill for the arrears of sick leave allowance due to the widow of P. Venkata Subbayya and a bill for Rs 15-7-9, being the amount due for July 1895 and for the 1st day of August 1895, was received only on the 26th March 1899 the bill remaining in the district as a result of the late Assistant Inspector of Schools report. I have been told that the pay bill of the Inspecting Schoolmaster was not paid that he did not receive the money. The late Assistant Inspector of Schools says that he was not paid for his

 2. The Master of the school, who was paid for his services to me in January 1897 claiming for his services for and this was referred to the late Assistant Inspector of Schools Quarter Range in the 1st. Quarter 1897 for payment.
 The petition was not returned to this office until 1st January 1897. He says that it was insisted in his office and adds that the time on which it was received by him was one of domestic afflictions to him as he had lost his wife, and and one of anxiety as his wife also was laid with fever.
 In fact, no action was taken in the matter by the Assistant officers until the present month by this office and that they do not not say much for their business methods.
 3. Under the above circumstances, they request that the District Board be permitted to make a note to which 25 of the
