CURRUM No. 2, 95, 4

SIR,

M. R. S. Subramanya Aiyar Avargal, one of the Assistant Engineers in this District has brought to my notice that at page 247 of the Madras Quarterly Civil List, Local Found Assistant Engineers are arranged not in order of seniority, but in alphabetical order of the Districts in which they are serving, and that consequently his name appears sixth on the list while as he is the senior 2nd class Assistant Engineer, it would be 5th were the arrangement by seniority. So long as the number of Assistant Engineers in North Arcot, South Arcot, Coimbatore and Godavari remains as at present, his name is bound to be 6th according to the present arrangement whereas if the arrangement were by seniority, he must rise a time to the 3rd place when the establishment prescribed in G.O. dated 16th January 1897, to 48th has been completely introduced throughout the Presidency. He appears to fear that the low position of his name on the list may lead to his supersession when there are vacancies in the first class or among the classes of District Engineers.

 2. I find that Local Fund District and Assistant Engineers and Supervisors in independent charge (Pages 246 to 248), District Judges (Pages 151 and 152) and Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Schools (Pages 174 to 177) are the only officers in the Civil List who are not arranged in order of seniority. I therefore place the matter before the Government for such orders as it may deem fit in order to secure, if thought necessary, a greater uniformity.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your Most Obedient Servant
