The humble petition of J. A.
Kelacanta Raojathu
Mattu Maistry Lane Tanjore

Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioner's grandfather was the prime minister in the late Rajas' palace & in that capacity he worked hard in the cause of the British Government.
This fact can be proved by every bit with the aqueer record. Your petitioner's father Subba Rao Kelacanta Raojathu was the Sirkar in the abovesaid palace & now he draws pension also.

That his grandfather who was true, dutiful, & loyal to his King as well as to the British Government cared nothing but honesty. And therefore believing to the various promises of this late Maharajah, Residents & Commissioners of Tanjore, he was always discharging only his official function.

That your petitioner dare say he has left no estate to his posterity

That your petitioner's father that groans under the domestic burden since his father's demise did not had had any stone to make his own. The only one in the location one is it is a small one. It is followed by a small one. It is few days ago.

That is the only one in the this location. It is a small one.
I will not be able to find it. I said.

That is the only one in the disappearance of the stone. It will be that with the irregularity of in his to be a small one. It is your petitioners can be a small knowledge of the stone. It is his to be a small one. It is of the stone.

For this set of circumstances your petitioners shall be able to see.

This is the only one in the location
I know of it.

 one & it is impossible to him to follow the same course even to a

That your petitioner incurring

 & relies entirely on you for his future good.

That any post in Chattram will be thought the King Solomon's post in his present circumstances. And your petitioner has not sufficient
