NOTE FOR THE

Gen. Sec

Please see his page number later attached.
I meant to have shown this to Gen. today, but he was called away to solve the matter & I overlooked it. I consider that Madras is now in greater danger than ever before, with Behar, Andhra Pradesh infected, & persons coming in by road from these places.
Effort should be made to relax. I have telephoned to the Gen. in this sense.

My dear Preeceley Horton spoke to me yesterday about the Roma Hospital he is maintaining it. He says he does not sunder the money of it is in any way useful, but the question is, whether, there is any use in his continuing it.
The same question was made by Lakshmana Charnai - one of the Secretaries of the

Your letter of this morning. I will speak the Council as soon as Council is over.
Personally I consider London to be in greater danger than ever now.
Things are steady at believe, but trust and how things are in a bad state.
