ORDER—No. 313 P., dated 1st March 1899.

The Plague Commissioner's recommendation is approved and the following notification will be published in the Fort St. George and the North Arcot and Salem District Gazettes:—

NOTIFICATION.

Whereas the Governor of Fort St. George in Council is satisfied that there is danger of an outbreak of plague if pilgrims and cattle owners from the districts of North Arcot and Salem, the Province of Mysore and other plague-infected parts are permitted to assemble at Rallabudugur in the Kangundi division of the North Arcot district during the ensuing Rathotsavam festival of Sri Kothandaramaswami and if the cattle fair called the Rallabudugur Yeddula Parisha is permitted to be held at that place:

In exercise of the powers delegated to him under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs that no person from the districts of Salem and North Arcot, the Province of Mysore or other plague-infected parts shall visit Rallabudugur from the 15th March to 5th April 1899, both days inclusive; and also prohibits the holding of the said cattle fair. All persons proceeding to the place in contravention of this notification will be turned back.

2. The Resident in Mysore will be requested to move the Government of that State to notify that, in consequence of danger of plague, this Government has prohibited, under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, the attendance, at Rallabudugur in the Kangundi division of the North Arcot district, from the 15th March to 5th April 1899, of persons from the Mysore State, on the occasion of the ensuing Rathotsavam festival of Sri Kothandaramaswami, and the holding of the cattle fair at that place between the said dates.
