Most Hon'd Sir,

I beg to state I was an Assistant teacher in Cocanada School not in the Cocanada Municipality and having been dismissed by the Chairman from service without any grounds, I presented an appeal petition to the Council against his order - which was rejected.

An endorsement to the following effect was given to me - "Appeal petition rejected - 6 against 6 with the casting vote of the Chairman."

I requested the Collector of the District, to submit my petition to the Hon'ble Govt who returned the same to my misfortune, saying he could not forward it as no appeal lay to Govt in such matters.

My petition to the Collector with his remarks is herewith submitted. It gives the necessary particulars. To guard against his own act & save his favourite J. Satteray, who has been teaching his brother's children privately at home, he improperly dismissed me from service. Great injustice is done to your petitioner. If your honor be pleased to cause

enquiries

Inquiries to be made through the collector,
Your honor will be convinced of the truth of your Petitioner's statement.

I now therefore pray that your honor be pleased to cause inquiries to be made, send for papers referred to with enclosures and do justice by ordering re-instatement as early as possible - or directing the Council to reconsider my petition at least -

I beg to remain,

Most devotedly Sir,

Your most obedt Servt
