COLLECTOR OF

Anantapur,

TO

THE

Plague Commission,
Madras

SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honour to state that four native Christian families who have vacated their houses in Hindupur town on account of Plague, have been subjected to ~~bad~~ hardship for want of proper shelter. They are in indigent circumstances and cannot afford to construct sheds to live in, and as such they deserve Royal Contribution.

I request therefore that you will be good enough to sanction half of the estimated sum to each family.

An estimate for the proposed sheds is herewith sent.

I have the honour to be,
Sir

Your most obedient servant

M. Mailead
