Note from the Plague Commissioner, dated 7th January 1899.

12 JAN 1899

Forwarded to the Financial dept with reference to para 1

ORDER:-No.77, dated 11th January 1899.

1. The President, Municipal Commission, Madras, will be requested to submit his Provincial Plague estimate for January at an early date.

2. The figures against "Hospital Assistants," "House rent allowance" "Plague allowance" and "Matrons and Nurses" in columns 3, 4 and 6 show a slight increase over the rates of monthly expenditure on account of these items reported in the detailed establishment lists which accompanied the annual estimates. It is [illegible] due to additional establishments since entertained. If so, the establishments subsequently entertained should have been reported. The officers entitled to boarding allowance and the rate of the allowance should also have been reported.
