NOTE FOR THE Plague Commr

The Plague Commr has in his Progs No 111/13-1-99 sanctd 3 Clerks on Rs 35, 30 & 25 respectively. The last is required for type writing & will be employed only after the purchase of a second machine has been sanctd by Govt.

2. ~~[illegible]~~ The other two appointments may be filled up at once. Two men in the office have worked well & deserve promotion. They are

(1) C. Ramaswami Aiyar, Rs 30 who is now doing Accountant's work for which a Clerk on Rs 60 was originally sanctd. He does much better than the man who was obtained from the A.G's office

(2) Ghulam Dastgir - reporting Clerk. He is a steady worker his present pay is Rs 25.

3. If these two Clerks are are respectively promoted to Rs 35 & 30, the vacancies to be filled up at present are Rs 30 & 25. Application recd are submitted herewith. H. seems to be the best man of the lot & if he is selected application will have to be made to the Board's Secy for his services. The next best man appears to be A. Sir,

I beg to bring the following few lines to your kind consideration in the hope that they may meet with success.

I am given to understand that a typist's place is shortly to be created in your Office. I beg leave to offer myself as a candidate for the same. As regards my qualifications I beg to submit that I read up to the Matriculation Class but was unsuccessful in the examination. I have passed the Government typewriting examination very high in 1892. I am able to type with facility on the following machines:- Yost, Hammond, (Universal and Ideal), Remington, Bar Lock, Williams, Smith-premier. I was employed as a typist in the Government Solicitors Office for a periof of 5 years but had to leave it on domestic considerations. I am at present an acting typist in the Revenue Department of the Government Office which I shall have to vacate on the permanent incumbent's coming.

For this act of kindness, I shall feel highly grateful.

Mr R. Sambaswam, B.A., was a student in the B.A classes of this college for two and a half years, his optional branch being Physical Science. He was a good student. His character and conduct were excellent throughout and his diligence and application were highly creditable. He prosecuted the study of Physical Science with intelligence and zeal and took a high place in the class examinations. I feel confident that in his future career he will do justice to the sound mental and moral training he has received and will prove himself faithful and efficient in any appointment for which he may be found qualified.

Garady Lane, Triplicane
Madras, 24th January 1899

To,

The Personal Assistant to the Plague Commissioner,
Madras.

Sir,

I learn that three additional hands were sanctioned for your office and out of them there were to be two clerks and only one of them has been appointed. So I beg to offer myself as an applicant for the other vacant clerk's post.

ap 22

I beg to state that I have passed the B.A Degree Examination and that I have been serving as the Correspondence and Receiving clerk in the City Civil Court under an acting arrangement for 5 months which expired with the 19th ultimo. I request you to solicit a reference to that office as to my work and conduct there during my acting term.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
your most obedient Servant

Respected Sir

I had been engaged for the last 18 years in North-Arcot district as a police.constable. Now I am getting as a pention of 2 Rs-3as-10ps, that is one third of what I was getting. I have many children. Large family depending on me. As the above said Rupees is not sufficient to support my family. We have to starve. I request your honor to employ me in your office as a watchman or a peon of a small sum of Rs 5 or 6. If you employ me I live by your Kindness. Many thousands of thanks to you.

I am yours
Respected Sir
Your most obedient servant.
