SIR,

In compliance with your Proceedings No.941 of the 18th December 1898, I have supplied each of the six Medical officers named therein with a set of Finger print apparatus, although they are not included in the Appendix to G.O.No.918, Pension, dated 4-12-97, nor are they covered by G.O.No.1181-P dated 26th September 1898.

2. In your order No.29 dated the 5th instant, you request me to furnish nine sets of the apparatus for certain Inspection officers in the Salem District. As it seems probable that other similar demands may follow I would suggest to your obtaining the general sanction of Government to my complying with your indents for the apparatus. Meanwhile I regret I am unable to make any further issues which have not been sanctioned by Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Frank O. Bird
