 H/o Excellency

Ex: II Madras Calcutta letter

Case no. 3067 of 22.2.99 on 1.12.90

This petition is the very one we presented, we are not willing to give up to the Municipality land 4 feet in breadth along our backyards to be formed into a lane for the use of the scavenger to go to and return from latrines, for the removal of excreta etc. By the formation of such a lane it will be only easy for thieves to steal away our cattle in our backyards and to break into our houses ^{during} at nights. In consideration of this, if a lane is opened through Alagiri Shetti's house we will have walls erected for our backyards and put up a small scaling gateway in each of those walls at our own cost so that the scavenger may conveniently pass through that gateway to all backyards. We therefore beg orders to carry out our proposal.
