CIRCULAR No. 1293
C. 80370.

MADRAS RAILWAY,
TRAFFIC MANAGER'S OFFICE,
MADRAS, 1st February 1899.

BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Detention Certificates.

1. Complaints having been made of the difficulties caused by the absence of a uniform system at Railway Plague Inspection Stations with regard to the issue of certificates to the holders of through tickets who are detained in the observation camps and subsequently continue their journey, these tickets having been in some cases endorsed by some irresponsible person, the following procedure has been prescribed by the Plague Commissioner and should be strictly carried out by the Station Masters on the Madras Railway.

2. In order to show that the detentions at stations have really been for plague purposes, books of certificates in the form printed overleaf will be supplied by the Collector of the District for use by the Plague Officials in charge of Camps at Railway Inspection Stations, and in order to enable a passenger to resume his journey after detention the certificate should, when presented by him, be clearly endorsed across as follows by the local Station Master to whom the Plague Officer's signature should be readily known.

Resumed journey on _____ after plague detention from _____ to _____

Station Master,

Station.

3. The tickets of passengers holding such certificates should be compared in order to see that the dates correspond, and both tickets and certificates of these passengers should be collected at the destination station and forwarded to the Chief Auditor with the classification of tickets.
