With reference to your R. C. C. No 1352. Board and Government 1898 dated 14th January 1899 I have the honor to forward herewith the letter from the behavior of the Municipal Council Palni No 431 dated 2nd February 1899 with its enclosures. It is reported that the Municipal Councillor U. R. A. V. S. T. Ramasami Chettiar avargas does not generally reside in Palni. It seems that his appointment as Councillor was recommended as he was one of the members of the Palni Devasthanam Committee, and the question whether he was a permanent resident of Palni does not appear to have been considered at the time of his appointment. It is further reported that he has not attended any of the meetings of the council held after the 10th October last as he has failed to attend the meetings in more than three consecutive months, his
