Memorandum

Reference: Proceedings of the Plague Commissioner Madras Rc no 1023 dated 25th January 1899.

The Tahsildar of Gooty is directed to pay a sum of Rs 3/- (Three only) each to the 31 poor families, mentioned in his anzi C No 19077 24-1-99 for constructing sheds outside the town. The charge may be debited to "Contribution towards the construction of private sheds".

2. He will also see that the amount is properly utilized by them.

Copy to the Plague Commissioner Madras with reference to his Rc no 1023 d/25-1-99

2. The matter being urgent I have ordered the Tahsildar of Gooty to pay the amount to the evacuated families. As there were no cases in the town for some 20 days after evacuation I thought of allowing the people to reoccupy their houses after due disinfection. But there have occurred 2 indigenous cases of plague afterwards and the poor families are still remaining outside the town where they have been subjected to a good deal of hardship for want of sheds
