The Secretary to Government Local and Municipal Department LOOSE & MUNICIPAL DEPT.
CURRENT 666M
Through the Revenue Divisional Officer and the Collector of Tirumala Dist.

I have the honor to submit herewith an application for gratuity from Ramachandraraja late person of the Municipal Hospital Tirumala. His service date from 16 October 1871. He was compelled to retire on the 15th Sept 1898 being unfit for further service He is now 65 years old. He applied apparently to the M.C. for gratuity but was informed that under G.O. 3432/16.2.93 his application for gratuity

His total service is thus about 27 years.

gratuity could not be entertained as he belonged to that class of servants whose labor was purely manual.

He again represented to the Council that he had done nearly 27 years long and faithful service to the Municipality and that he was in a destitute condition and that his application might therefore be reconsidered. The Council has in para 6 of its proceedings No. 15 dated 19.12.30 resolved to lay his case before

Government as a special case with a recommendation that some gratuity may be given to him (copy of reso lution enclosed) under these circumstances

I beg to recommend that you will be be pleased to sanction Rs 100 as gratuity for him the amount being equal to 26 months emoluments. I may here add that his pay was Rs 7 till 1891 when it was reduced to Rs 5 otherwise than as a penalty

I have the honor to be

Sir
Your most obedient servant

Chairman
