SIR,

With reference to your letter No 1061 dated the 26th December 1896, I have the honour to state that under the plague Commissioner's letter No 986 of 24th December 1896, the Sanitary Inspector in question may get his pay + 15 per cent while held in readiness for duty and 25 per cent more when actually on plague duty. Together with the travelling allowance of his class.

As regards the Board allowance to nurses Go 455 P dated 9th May 1896, states that Europeans and Eurasian nurses engaged for plague duty shall be paid the allowance of Rs 1-8-0 a day. I am therefore inclined to think they are entitled to the Board allowance of the whole period of their employment whether actually in attendance on plague patients, or not. If you do not agree I suggest that that definite orders of Government or the plague Commission may be obtained

As regards the hospital assistants Go 1153 I dated 23rd September 98 is not clear. Officers deputed to do light plague duty such as the inspection of passengers get Rs 10 a month extra, while those similarly deputed to attend on plague patients receive Rs 15. There is nothing to lower the case of a hospital assistant who discovers and attends on plague patients during the course of his inspection of passengers and a reference to plague Commissioner or to Government seems therefore necessary

SIR,

The Sanitary Inspector attached to the ambulance staff is a temporary Sanitary Inspector deputed by the Sanitary Commissioner and he is paid Rs 40 (pay) + Rs 15 (house allowance) + Rs 15 (travelling allowance). The staff was sanctioned at Kolar until indigenous plague broke out in Madras where it is employed on actual plague duty. Since the 1st instant. The Sanitary Inspector claims with reference to additional municipal regulation 10, that he should be allowed the 25 percent increase to his pay, than provided for as he is now on actual plague duty. I have the honor to enquire whether his claim is admissible. The Regulation says that when the ambulance staff is concentrated their pay shall be 15 per cent. over ordinary rates and this shall be increased to 25 per cent. when the staff is on actual plague duty. I should think this applies to Hospital assistants ~~and~~ persons already in service and transferred to the ambulance staff on the same pay and not to persons engaged for plague duty on special terms such as the Sanitary Inspectors, nurses and other members of the staff. If it applies the addition of 15 per cent. to their pay when they are concentrated as provided for in the Regulation is an ~~un-~~meaning. I request instructions in the matter.

2. In this connection I have to state that the nurses attached to the ambulance staff and the Hospital

Assistants in charge of the Road Frontier Inspection Stations had in some cases to attend upon plague patients (imported) for a few days and they have claimed the board allowance of Rs 4.5 and the plague allowance of Rs 15 respectively for the whole month instead of for the broken period they actually attended upon the plague cases. I request to be informed whether such claims for the full month's allowance should be passed.

I have the honor to be

Yours most obedient servant
