FROM

THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

To

The Secretary to the Govt of Madras,
Local and Municipal Department.

Dated Bangalore, the 22nd December 1898.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for information a copy of each of the following Notifications issued by me under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897:—

No. 14 P., dated the 15th December 1898, being an addition to the Regulations published in Notification No. 5840, dated the 2nd November 1898.

No. 15 P., dated the 15th December 1898 amending Notification No. 5116, dated the 29th September 1898, authorising certain officers in the station to issue passes.

No. 28 P., dated the 15th December 1898, directing that all medical practitioners, not being in the service of Government, should report to the District Medical Officers any case in which glandular swellings or other symptoms of plague are perceived by them.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

Notification.

No. 14 P., dated Bangalore, the 15th December 1898.

In exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, as applied to the Civil and Military Station, the Resident in Mysore is pleased to prescribe the following regulations, in addition to the regulations published in the Resident's Notification No. 5840, dated 2nd November 1898.

1. No dead body shall be removed for the purpose of burning or burial, until a Government Medical Officer, or a Medical practitioner duly authorised in this behalf by the District Magistrate, has granted a certificate testifying to the cause of death. Such certificate shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy being given to the burial party to be presented to the Peon on duty at the Cemetery or burning ground, the other copy being sent forthwith to the District Medical Officer.

2. No person shall in any way assist in the disposal of any dead body for which a certificate as prescribed in the preceding rule has not been obtained, nor shall any person accompany the funeral procession of any such body.

3. No person shall use, or shall allow to be used, any carriage, cart, or any other vehicle, for the removal of any person who has died from plague, or who is suffering from plague, unless the vehicle be one authorised to be used for such purposes, or unless the consent of the District Medical Officer has been obtained to its use.

4. Any person disobeying the above regulations shall be deemed to have committed an offence under Section 188, Indian Penal Code.
