G.O., No. 537, Judicial, dated 29th March 1899.

Read—the following paper :—

From T. HESKETH BIGGS, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 3rd March 1899, No. 818.

I have the honour to invite a reference to G.O., No. 1460 M., dated the 2nd of September 1896, in the Local and Municipal Department, approving the Accountant-General's proposals regarding the cost of Bench Magistrates' establishments.

2. In paragraph 3 of Mr. Harrison's letter read in the above Government Order, it was suggested that practical experience might lead to the adoption of a more satisfactory arrangement than that of paying the establishments in question in the first instance from Provincial revenues and recovering the cost from municipalities up to the amount of fines realized under sections 3 to 5 of the Towns Nuisance Act.

3. In pursuance of that suggestion, I have the honour to submit a statement from which it will be seen that the receipts during the years 1896-97 and 1897-98, exceeded the expenditure on Bench establishments in the case of every municipality except Vizianagram, Anantapur, Dindigul and Coonoor. The best plan therefore would seem to be to credit the fines directly to the municipalities and hand over the establishments to the municipalities, the appointments as Government appointments being abolished. As regards the four municipalities where charges exceeded receipts, a fixed contribution based on the averages of the two years could be given to them, unless Government consider the further retention of some of the establishments unnecessary in which case no contribution to the municipalities in which such establishments are now employed would be necessary. The figures suggest that the work performed by the Benches at Coonoor and Dindigul is scarcely enough to justify the retention of special Bench establishments.

Order—No. 537, Judicial, dated 29th March 1899.

The Government considers that members of Bench Magistrates' establishments should be subordinate to District Magistrates and not to the Municipalities concerned, and that no change should be made in their status as permanent public servants. The existing arrangements in regard to the debit of the cost of these establishments should therefore be left undisturbed, and the Accountant-General will be informed accordingly.

2. The concluding portion of the Accountant-General's letter will be referred to the District Magistrates of Madura and the Nilgiris for early remarks.
