Sir,

With reference to your letters Refn Nos 2050 + 2071 / G.C. of 1898, dated the 1st and 2nd instant, I have the honor to inform you that in the first case (Bangalore) the station master Avadi, states that he had no information that the passenger had come from Bangalore [illegible] plague staff at [illegible] [illegible]ly failed [illegible] Bowringpet [illegible] communicate the [illegible] required by regulation [illegible] the other case the Station Master had received no intimation that Bowringpet was an infected area.

It was understood when we consented to this duty of issuing passports being imposed upon certain Station Masters [illegible] they should receive their instructions direct and that the Company was not responsible for their performance of this duty. We do our best to keep the Staff advised of all the stations comprised in the infected areas but it is impossible to keep quite up to date. For instance G.O. No. 1263 P, dated 7th October, only reached this office on the 2nd November. It specified certain Districts only as being plague infected areas and we had to find out what Railway stations were included in those Districts. This in some cases could only be done by obtaining the information from the Railways running through the Districts and we only now find ourselves in a position to issue a revised circular to the staff telling them what stations they are to [illegible].

The next [illegible] of the plague infected areas [illegible] again leave us in the same position.

If the Government could see their way to publish lists of stations situated in plague infected areas it would enable us to get out our instructions quicker.

I have &ca

Note. I have omitted Sinde as the Ry there has no direct communication with the Bombay Presidency. It would be better if some clerk is asked to check the list before being printed. From Chas 1693 from the Madras Rly Company it would appear that a similar list is under compilation in the Traffic Manager's office. The Agent may be asked to send us a copy to compare the two lists together before publication.
