THE SECRETARY TO THE COMMISSIONER,

OF Madras

SIR,

With reference to your Proceedings No. 1666 dated 9 February 1899 on the Plague Estimate of this District for February 1899, I have the honor to state as follows: -

Para 3. A Segregation shed at Pamban and another at Theelakarai were constructed last year at a cost of Rs 140 and 160 respectively and the amount was paid by the District Board only in January 99. This is shown against "Petty Construction and Repairs" in Column 2 of the Budget Estimate.

The sum of Rs 220 against "Purchase

"Purchase & Repair of furniture" is a mistake. It ought to have been shown against "Medicines and Instruments" the expenditure under which head up to end of January 1899 was Rs 334 as detailed below:—

One wooden pump for spraying per chloride of mercury - Rs. 10—

Disinfectants and medicines supplied to the several Hospitals and Dispensaries in the District on account of Plague 324—

The sum of Rs 75 shown against the head "Office Expenses" ought to have been shown against "miscellaneous".

This expenditure was not incurred in one month, but represents only the progressive total up to the end of May 1899. In the estimate of May 1899, this expenditure was put by mistake against "other hospital necessities" instead of against "miscellaneous".

The

The estimates for February and March were made with reference to the actual expenditure shown against the several heads, but after the alterations now made the provisions may be scored out.

under
(1) Purchase & repair of furniture
(2) Office expenses

The sum of Rs 55 shown as expenditure against the head "Bedding & clothing" in the estimate for January 1899 was shown against the head "miscellaneous" in the estimate for February correctly. This amount represents compensation paid to the Plague patient at Kodakanal and to his attendant for clothing destroyed.

The expenditure against "Medicines and Instruments" up to the end of January 99 will now be Rs 334 as already explained and not Rs 114 as shown in the estimate.

I have the honor to be
