PROCEEDINGS—No. 338, dated 27th March 1899.

Officers in charge of railway frontier inspection stations are authorized to detain—

- (a) persons suspected of plague and their families and attendants ;
- (b) persons from infected areas who appear to be suspicious by reason of their appearance, the dirty condition of their clothes, the fact that they are travelling in gangs, or belong to classes which are likely to disseminate the disease or cannot be traced on arrival at their destination or depended upon to give information should plague occur among them.

2. Persons falling under class (a) must be detained as long as the suspicion of plague remains. Those falling under class (b) may, if they prefer it, instead of being detained, be allowed to go back after disinfection to the place they came from, if they give a satisfactory reason, and purchase a return ticket.

3. These instructions do not apply to railway inspection stations which are not frontier inspection stations.
