ESQUIRE

Acting Collector
DISTRICT MAGISTRATE OF

TANJORE,

SIR,

I have the honour to Enquire whether in your opinion the system of punching and plague marking tickets has been so perfected that it is enough for passport issuing officers to look out for such tickets and unnecessary for them to question holders of unmarked tickets.

2. I ask because the Agent South Indian Railway in Correspondence regarding failure to detect certain travellers from infected areas in November last supports the explanation of a station master who considers that he need not trouble himself about any — traveller

traveller in respect of whom no intimation has been received or who has not a — marked ticket.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
